

2017 SMITH LEADERSHIP SYMPOSIUM

Social Responsibility & Civic Engagement

Wednesday, September 6, 2017

9:00 am Welcome and Opening Remarks

Kristen Mihalko, Senior Manager, Balboa Park Learning Institute

Dr. Steven Snyder, Chief Executive Officer, Fleet Science Center

Councilmember Chris Ward, City of San Diego District 3

9:15 am Radical Social Change Through Street Dance Activism

Shamell Bell, Community Organizer and Arts & Culture liaison, Black Lives Matter LA

9:45 am Changing the Things We Cannot Accept

Mike Murawski, Director of Education & Public Programs, Portland Art Museum

10:15 am Break

10:30 am A New Code for Civic Engagement

Milenko Matanovic, Founder and Former Executive Director, Pomegranate Center

11:00 am Radical Resilience

Monica O. Montgomery, Graduate Professor, Museums & Social Change and Founding Director & Curator, Museum of Impact

11:30 am Closing Panel with Q&A

This event is made possible by the Robert F. Smith Museum Management Symposium Endowment at the San Diego Foundation.

Robert F. Smith, an inspiring civic and business leader

The Smith Leadership Symposium is a signature event of the Balboa Park Cultural Partnership's Learning Institute program. It is named in recognition of San Diegan Robert "Bob" Smith, an inspiring civic and business leader who provided strategic planning consulting for many Park institutions, including the San Diego Natural History Museum, the San Diego Zoo, and the Balboa Park Cultural Partnership.

THANK YOU TO OUR SPONSORS

TAKE THE NEXT STEP

Arts, science, and culture are the "soul" of our City and they support our quality of life, benefit diverse communities and neighborhoods, and make our City vibrant. Learn how to get involved with advocacy in the City of San Diego and receive updates.

Learn more at riseupforthearts.org

1549 El Prado, Suite 4 San Diego 92101 | learning@bpcp.org | 619.232.7502